PETITION TO REVIVE UNINTENTIONALLY ABANDONED APPLICATION

This Petition is filed on behalf of Applied Materials, Inc. in order to revive the above-referenced patent application entitled "Electronically Actuated Valve." The Petition is filed pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(b). Applied Materials has not received a Notice of Abandonment in connection with this application. Nevertheless, Applicant believes that the application has become abandoned, and that this Petition is necessary in order to proceed with prosecution of the above application.

This application is filed within twelve months of the believed date of abandonment. A PTO Form 64 is attached hereto. Authorization to charge applicant's deposit account number in the amount of $1,330.00 is provided on the attached form.

In further support of this Petition, Applicant (Applied Materials, Inc.) would show the following:

The above-referenced Patent Application was filed with the Patent Office on August 20, 2003. A return postcard was submitted with the application, which was duly stamped and returned by the Initial Patent Examining division (IPE). A copy of the postcard is attached hereto as Appendix A.

On September 17, 2003, the IPE sent a Notice of Missing Parts. The Notice was directed to Applied Materials, Inc. in California. The mailing date was September 17, 2003. A copy of the Notice is attached hereto as Appendix B.

Applied Materials received the Notice of Missing Parts. The Notice advised that the required Oath from the inventors was needed, as well as the filing fee. The signature of inventor Alexander was obtained in March of 2004. However, signatures of the remaining four inventors were not received until August of 2004. As indicated in the statement on the attached form, signed by Mr. Robert W. Mulcahy of the Applied Materials Patent Department, the delay in obtaining the signatures and in filing a Response to the Notice of Missing Parts was at all times unintentional.

The signed Declaration is being provided with the separately filed Response to Notice to File Missing Parts.

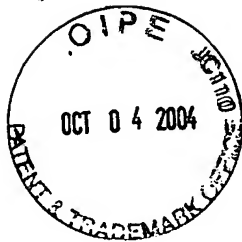

The undersigned counsel would add that he submitted a Status Inquiry with the Patent Office on August 19, 2004. No response to that Inquiry has been received. However, the undersigned counsel did speak to an Examiner approximately two weeks ago, at which time it was first learned by the undersigned counsel that the application may have gone abandoned. Thus, this filing is a result of counsel's investigation into the status of the application.

Respectfully submitted,
